FINE DISPLAY OF HORSES

Second Day of Fair is Mareed by Excellent Exhibits of Blooded Equines.

BABY SHOW A FEATURE.

Little Son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wilcox, of Paris, Takes First Premium.

The second day of the fair was marked by an increase in attendance, together with a larger and better display of stock than has been exhibited on the local grounds in former years.
The delightful weather continued and a cool atmosphere afforded a comfort to the visitors.

The display of saddle and harness horses was one of the best ever witnessed and the feature events furnished a lively competition for the blue ribbons.

Allie Jones, of North Middletown was very successful in the show ring with his string of show horses and carried away four blue ties. In the fine harness horse class he carried away the premium for stallion two years old and under three with his fine young stallion, Elector, while R. H. Boardman was a close second with Half Blaze.
The ring for the best stallion one year and under two, brought out several entries. Matlack & Shropshire, of Winchester, landed the blue tie with Fair Acre. Lee Craven, of Little Rock, took the second premium with his handsome young stallion, Inland Chief.

The saddle class occupied a prominent part in the afternoon's program and although the entries were few the stock exhibited was of the very highest class. Allie Jones captured the feature of this department with his Capina over the prize show mare of Matlack & Shropshire, Hazel Dawn, while in the ring following Princess V. easily defeated Minnie Bright, the property of C. B. Cox, of Hutchison.

In the class for mares one year and under two four fine specimens were entered. Speakes Bros., of Bourbon, won the first prize with their undefeated show filly, Mildred King. Hart Bros., of Flemingsburg, received the second premium on their entry, Fleming Miss.

W. C. Massie won the filly colt event over six entries while the sweepstakes for fine horses Chas. Scott's Sharidan defeated Richelieu King, the property of J. W. Young & Bros., of North Middletown.

The baby show which has always been a feature of the second day brought out three entries, Wm. Theodore Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H.
Butler, of Paris, Eugene Marion [Borders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Addison Borders and John N. Wilcox, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilcox. The judges were Mrs. Durand Whipple, Mrs. N.
F. Brent and Mrs. Harry Clay. The prize was awarded the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox.

BLAZE AT MILLERSBURG

Early Morning Fire Entails Loss Estimated at $6,000 Partly Insured.

PARIS CALLED TO ASSIST.

Volunteers Check Flames in Time To Prevent More Severe Conflagration.

Fire which originated in the butcher shop of Mr. C. D. Tackett, on Fifth street in Millersburg at 1:30 o'clock this morning, entailed a loss estimated at $6,000, partly covered by insurance. For a time this entire section of the town was threatened with dis-truction and only by heroic efforts were the flames confined to a small area.

Fearing the inability of the volunteer department to check the flames, the Paris Department was called upon, but their services were not needed.

The property occupied by Mr. Wells is owned by Mrs. Sue V. Sandusky, who carried $1,500 insurance on the building which was totally destroyed.

The cause of the fire is unknown.
When the alarm was sounded the flames had made great headway in butcher shop and rapidly consumed the building, in which also was located restaurant of M. P. Wells.

The flames spread rapidly to the adjoining building of Mr. T. A. Jones in which he conducted a harness store and also the barber shop of T. T. Bentley. This building was badly damaged. Mr. Jones carried a small amount of insurance, while Mr. Tackett carried $500 on his stock. Neither Bentley or Wells were insured against fire loss.

In the path of the flames were the buildings occupied by the Peoples' Grocery, Farmers' Bank, Home Telephone office and the postoffice. Frame structures occupy the rear of the buildings in that section, and for a time it was thought the flames would be communicated to these, which would have resulted in the most serious fire in the history of the town. The fire engine and hose lines were manned by volunteers who battled heroically for two hours, until the progress of the flames was checked.

About two o'clock the Paris department received a call for assistance and the engine together with one thousand feet of hose were put aboard a freight car to be ready in event the Millersburg department could not check the flames, but at three o'clock another message was received to the effect that the fire was under control, when the apparatus was unloaded.

Well Located Property.

street to be sold at auction Saturday, erty is in demand. -5-10-13

A Prosperous Institution.

The statement of the condition of the Farmers' Bank of Millersburg, published in this issue, shows that the people of Millersburg and vicinity appreciate the safe, conservative banking methods of the popular cashier, Mr. Sanford Allen. The bank has deposits of $172-662.58, and is in every way a financial concern of which any business community might well be proud. With Mr.
Allen at the helm the Farmers' Bank is assured of a successful business career and the depositors and stockholders an ample guarantee that their interests will be rigidly safeguarded.

Don't you need some new rugs?

Dear Amy:-

Have your old rugs worn out? A hole started in one that Papa gave me when I was married, and what do you think? Baby John brought a stray dog in the house, and this very dog, Amy, commenced at the hole and tore my rug all to pieces.

But I didn't mind, because you get tired of old rugs and want new ones, anyway, don't you?

Your old friend,

Lou.

P.S.—I went immediately and bought a new going to give several of my old rugs to my NOTES.

W. E. Kiser, of Kiser, is the acting stock marshal, a position he has held since the reorganization of the fair six years ago.

The car service yesterday as well as Monday was entirely unsatisfactory to the patrons who were subjected to long waits for the lack of transportation facilities. It is a well known fact that the patrons of railways have been discriminated against and the car service to the grounds at present is far inferior to that of former years. However there is a promise of better service as the crowds increase.

Reckless Auto Driving.

Regardless of the State laws and a special city ordinance governing the automobile, it seems that the drivers and owners of Paris and Bourbon county take little heed. Mayor Hinton has repeatedly notified owners and drivers through all of the Paris papers and has instructed the police to enforce the law. But in the face of all, reckless driving is indulged in every day and night in Paris. The streets of Paris are narrow and are generally crowded and it is a hard matter to even comply with the law and avoid accidents. Numerous complaints have been telephoned The News and asking that we take a hand in the fight.

Yesterday we understand there were several accidents on South Main street and in the vicinity of Cypress Hon. C. M. Thomas was run into and his horse seriously injured. Mrs. Jas. Connelly also collided with a machine and several other accidents were narrowly averted. The only remedy that the News can suggest is to arrest and make an example of one of the violators.

We don't know the particulars of either of the above accidents and don't refer to them in particular but to all automobile owners in general.

Encouraging Prospects.

The allotment of stock to Bourbon county of the Associated Publishers Co., of Cincinnati, is daily decreasing in Paris, and after a few shares are sold in Millersburg the portion will be about exhausted. Thomas G. Witherpoon, Jr., representative of the Company declares that business people of Paris have appreciated the merits of the plans of the Publishing house in a very exceptional manner, and that stockholders here in the Company are daily becoming more enthusiastic over the ultimate success of the organization.

THEATRICAL.

"THE ROSARY."

Every theatregoer in this city knows that "The Rosary" was the most talked about play in the popular priced houses last season. This play struck a responsive chord in the hearts of the people, and with its many human interest qualities, it proved to be immensely popular. Owing to its last season's success "The Rosary" is being repeated again this season by the well known producers, Rowland and Clifford, and it comes to this theatre on September 9, 1912.

Whaling has almost ceased to hold its place as one of our national industries. Though almost all of its men and ships have passed away, an illuminating description of this hazardous vocation has never been written. But fortunately it has been recorded by the best and truest of all possible methods of recording facts—the tiny negatives of animated pictures. These will be presented by Lyman H. Howe at the Paris Grand on September 10. The scenes are of absorbing interest throughout. They reveal the implements and tactics of whalers, the sighting, approach and harpooning of the whale, its frantic, convulsive struggles, its enormous size as seen along side the vessel and finally the processes employed in dressing it for its products.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—In Bath county T. S. Robertson sold to S. S. Ralls three suckling mule colts for $650. In Woodford county Hardin Field sold to Thomas Dunlap a pair of three year old mules for $500.

—It is announced that no successor to the late Dr. M. A. Scovell as head of the Kentucky Experiment Station will be elected for the present, its affairs to be conducted by a council instead.

—J. A. Wilson, of Paris, sold last week to Rev. J. R. Jones, of Cynthiana, one of his pure bred Shetland ponies at good price. He also sold a fine Shetland to Willis Boston, of Cynthiana, at a fancy price.

—B. R. Caldwell has a three year old pet ewe that gave birth to triplets in March and when the lambs were 5 months and 4 days old the three weighed two hundred and eighty pounds, including the mother 400 pounds.

—When R. L. Conrad transferred his fine Blue Grass farm at Dry Ridge to Ira Adams, the biggest land deal in point of value, ever consummated in Grant county took place. The farm contains 320 acres and the consideration was $320 per acre, or $32,000.

—Henry Tevis, a prominent farmer of Shelby City, is "some" corn raiser. He gathered a number of ears that measured fifteen inches in length and were filled with hard firm grains. He states that his crop will average over eighteen barrels to the acre.

—The largest sale of lambs made this year was that of John B. Graves to Squire J. Amos Hamon, who sold 550 head averaging in weight eighty-five pounds, for which he received $2,795, or six cents a pound. Mr. Graves had recently refused seven cents for the lambs.

—The Western Tobacco Journal reports the acreage of tobacco in the Burley district this year at 120 per cent as compared with 1911. The total acreage is put at 228,000, against 190,000 last year. Crop condition is 85 per cent compared to 70 in 1911, 84 in 1910, 94 in 1909 and 75 in 1908.

—Mr. W. C. Massie of Bourbon county, purchased last week three fine brood mares in Madison, for which he paid $1,000. Mr. Massie secured one each from General Black, Alex. Gibbs and Parrish Bros. These animals were high class brood mares, as the price paid indicates.

—The following notice is sent out from Danville: "Hudson & Davis have purchased eight hundred acres of hemp at $3.50. They secured the yield from 400 acres in Boyle, 200 in Bourbon and the remainder in Mercer and Garrard counties. The hemp acreage has fallen off about 75 per cent in central Kentucky on account of the increased amount of tobacco raised.

A Good Show.

The Hyatt & Lenore Musical Comedy Co. have been playing to packed houses every night during their engagement at the Grand. It speaks well for the company when everybody leaving the opera house states that they must not miss a show given by these artists. They carry a complete wardrobe for each show. The company consists of ten people, mostly girls, and have proven to be artists in their line. This aggregation will have the boards at the Grand the rest of the week.

Nothing in It.

A report was sent out from Frankfort that Attorney J. Floyd Byrd would make the race for Congress in the Seventh District against Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill. The report had not the slightest foundation; in fact, he says: "I am a Progressive, but a Woodrow Wilson Progressive and decidedly not a Bull McCarver. I have always affiliated with the Democratic party and am not in politics at present."
